

CLEARANCE OF THE PAST AND CONSECRATION

Day 1 – Clearance of the Past

Memory Verses

- 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NLV) — “If anyone belongs to Christ, there is a new person. The old life is gone. New life has begun.”
- Romans 6:4 (NLV) — “When we were baptized, we were buried with Christ and shared His death. So just as Christ was raised from the dead by the great power of the Father, now we also may live a new life.”

Story

Think of a house filled with broken furniture, dusty clothes, and rotten food.

One day, the owner renovates it completely.

That's what God does with us—He doesn't just sweep the floor. He makes us brand new inside.

Key Study:

1. Salvation first.
Change follows.
We don't clean ourselves to be saved. Jesus does the cleaning.
2. New life changes our taste.
We stop craving the old things because the Spirit gives us new desires.

Key Study:

3. Biblical examples of clearance
 - Israel left Egypt (Exodus)
 - Christians burned magic books (Acts 19)
 - Zacchaeus restored stolen money (Luke 19)
4. Clearance is Spirit-led, not rule-based.
The Spirit gently shows us what doesn't belong anymore.

🔑 Four Points of Clearance of the Past

1. Clearance is not the price of salvation

We are saved by Jesus' blood, not by cleaning ourselves first.

Like dirty clothes thrown in the washing machine, it is the blood of Jesus that washes us clean.

We cannot scrub away our own stains.

Two Points of Clearance of the Past

2. Clearance flows from new life

When God gives us new life, our tastes change.

We no longer enjoy the same sins.

A baby does not crave the same food as an adult; our new life craves spiritual food.

That is the Spirit moving in us to separate from the past.

▣ Egypt = What Still Tries to Follow You

Even after salvation, these things may linger:

- Familiar sins that feel “comfortable”
- Old thought patterns that resist renewal
- Emotional clutter that clouds spiritual clarity

Lord Jesus, thank You for making me a new creation.

Help me clear away every habit,
thought, or sin that does not please
You.

Lead me step by step into the new life
You have given me. Amen
