#5 Day 2 – The Idols
– Removing Distractions

A photograph of a person kneeling in a dark room, facing a bright light source that creates a strong silhouette of their head and shoulders. In front of them on a light-colored wooden floor lies a smartphone, its screen glowing brightly. A power cord is visible, trailing from the phone towards the bottom right of the frame.

Why We Hold On to Idols

Idols make us feel safe
— but keep us stuck.

God asks for our whole heart — not a crowded one.

How to Remove Distractions

Name your idol.

Confess it to God.

Break its power —
delete, step away, unplug.

Replace it with worship and purpose.

Why Spiritual Clearance Is Important

Spiritual clearance means cleaning out the idols so God can take first place again.

It is not about throwing everything away — but putting everything in the right order.

A photograph showing a woman from the side and back. She is holding a black Samsung smartphone in her right hand, looking down at its screen. In her left hand, she holds a thick, light-colored book. Her hair is dark and curly. The background is blurred, suggesting an indoor setting.

Why Spiritual Clearance Is Important

Example:

Your phone isn't evil — but if it takes all your time and blocks prayer, it becomes an idol.

When you use it for good (to study, share God's Word, connect, learn), it becomes a tool for God.

Reflection Verse

"We must get rid of everything that slows us down and the sin that so easily holds us back." — Hebrews 12 : 1 (GNT)

"Let us run with endurance the race God has set before us." — (NLT)

My Heart Check

What fills your time
more than God?

My Heart Check

Would you give it up if He asked?

Closing Thought

When we remove the idol, we find the real God.

Empty hands can finally receive.

Closing Prayer

Lord, show me anything that has taken Your place.

I lay it down today.

Be my first love
again. Amen.

see YOU
TOMORROW
